league itself, but they're not done with free agency. The Chargers have inked another tight end to a deal. Jacob Hollister, who spent last season with the Kansas City Chiefs, will be the team's new tight end. He's a 6'4", 260 lb. tight end from The University of Southern California. He had 79 receptions for 1,082 yards and seven touchdowns in the regular season last year, but a knee injury ended his 2017 season before it ever began. As a senior at USC, he had 53 receptions for 617 yards and four touchdowns. He didn't have much of an NFL track record prior to the 2017 season as his best year prior to that was his rookie year in 2014 where he had 25 receptions for 270 yards and two touchdowns.
